

"Les Enfants Terribles"

They call themselves the Enfants Terribles of wine. Paul and David, friends and founders of Winenot, wanted to create a range in their own image that would shake preconceptions up. Sunny, convivial wines in a bottle enrobed in pep, to accompany through the moments of your life. The Enfants Terribles - terribly compelling wines!

Les Enfants Terribles

Berlingot

AOC Côtes de Bergerac Moelleux

Tasting Notes

This Côtes-de-Bergerac Moelleux offers fresh fruit flavours and amylic fermentation notes (sweets, banana).

Thanks to its low temperature fermentation, the mouth is rich and fresh with notes of crisp citrus fruits.

Serve chilled, between 10° and 12°C.

Sémillon, Sauvignon, Muscadelle

Food Pairings

Berlingot Les Enfants Terribles is delicious as an aperitif or served with fruit desserts. It would also be daring but surprising to serve it with goat's cheese or foie gras.
